Bluegrass Intentions

What would happen if you took a strange melody from a 1934 field recording made in Crowley, Louisiana, added lyrics from the oldtime fiddle god Tommy Jarrell, and played the resulting combination bluegrass-style? The Bluegrass Intentions! With Bill Evans on banjo, Alan Senauke on guitar, Eric Thompson on mandolin, Suzy Thompson on fiddle, and Larry Cohea on bass, these five veteran bluegrass and old time musicians have joined forces to play energetic traditional bluegrass, inspired by musical heroes such as Bill Monroe, the Osborne Brothers, the Stanley Brothers, Cousin Emmy, Flatt & Scruggs, Tommy Jarrell, Rose Maddox, Benton Flippen, the Carter Family, Red Allen, Jimmy Martin, Kitty Wells, and Otis Burris just to name a few. Their interpretation is fresh, yet totally consistent with the classic bluegrass sound. The Bluegrass Intentions are sure to mesmerize your guests with their blend of old-time, bluegrass and irresistible dance-rhythms!
