Christina Jaqua

Christina Jaqua's earliest dream was to become a musical comedy performer, but fate had other things in store for her. Her first and only voice teacher only knew classical technique and before she knew it, she was singing with opera companies like: New York City, Chautauqua, Nevada, Columbus, San Francisco Opera and every other company in the S.F. Bay area. She performed over 32 different operatic roles before deciding that she preferred the more intimate, interactive quality of walkaround entertainment. Christina has met people across the continent and around the world, and performed in virtually all of the grand hotels, wineries, restaurants, private estates, and offbeat venues in California. She's performed for Robin Williams, former Secretary of State, Charles Schultz, Danielle Steele, Shirley Temple Black, Mayor Willie Brown and U.S. Senator, Diane Feinstein, just to name a few. Christina's corporate client's have included Microsoft, Merck, Cisco Systems, Coca Cola, Virgin International, Bank of America, the San Francisco 49'ers and many many more!
