

WESTAFRICAN
HIGHLIFE BAND

West African Highlife Band

The West African Highlife Band is an authentic all-star group of West African music veterans. Together, they revive the 'highlife' dance classics, with a fusion of African and world musics. Rich vocal harmonies, intertwining guitars, and exciting percussion make this group unbeatable! Producer/Bandleader Ken Okulolo was first seen in the U.S. with King Sunny Ade's African Beats. He was five times voted Nigeria's best bassist by that country's music journalists. Deeply rooted in traditional village music, as a youth he was bassist for several great highlife bands, including that of the highlife master, Victor Olaiya.
